Welcome to Career-Life Education 10! This course is one of the steps towards graduating high school and preparing yourself for the world beyond. While we will be on this journey together, it is a very individual experience. Assignments and projects are designed so that you can explore and develop your own identity, skills, connections, and interests, as well as uncover what you need to do or learn in order to achieve your personal, academic, and professional goals.

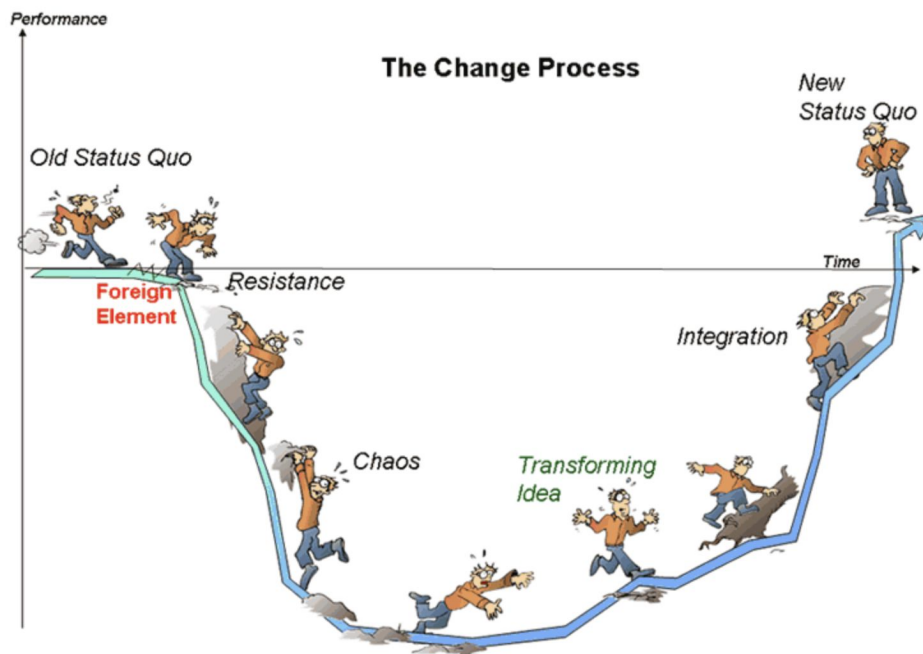

Here is some of what to expect:

- Units: Identity and Career Research; Relationships and Mentors; Finances; Job Seeking and Employability Skills
- Guest Speakers: We will have a number of visitors joining us to share their knowledge and experience with us on a variety of topics.
- PARTY Program: We will attend the full-day field trip for the Prevent Alcohol and Risk-Related Trauma in Youth program.

How to be successful in this mandatory course:

- Be “employable”: This is a class, but school is your job right now. To be successful at any job, you need to be respectful of yourself and others and demonstrate commitment to your work.
- Be responsible: You are responsible for yourself, your actions, and your work.
- Be engaged: Participate (this means different things in different situations), apply yourself, and stay off your phone!

As your teacher, I am responsible for the safety and education of every student in our class. You may encounter new and perhaps uncomfortable ideas. Part of developing yourself is to confront these new ideas and figure out how they fit into your world. We will be working through these together, but know that I am here to help you with this process and to support you as you discover more about yourself.

I am looking forward to working with you! Please let me know if you have any questions.
